NO. 52, VOL. 7.]

NEW WESTMINSTER, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1867.

[PRICE 6d. or 12 cts.]

A BAZAAR IN A PALACE.

The brief yet most brilliant campaign which terminated at Sadowa in the downfall of Austria, left to Prussia an honored legacy of maimed soldiers, who are the recipients of much kindness from the ladies of Berlin.

The German papers contain very long and interesting accounts of a fair given in the Royal Palace at Berlin to the maimed and wounded of 1866, which was gotten up by the Crown Princess, who, invoking charitable contributions from all classes, threw open the splendid apartments of the Palace for a Bazaar.

At one of the many tables for the sale of different articles, the Princess presided, and a staff of the most beautiful, wealthy and aristocratic of the ladies of Berlin assisted at other tables. Rich gifts by the wagon load poured in from all parts of Europe. The Bazaar commenced on the 8th of April, and continued for six days. The admission fee was six pence, and two maimed persons collected the fees at the gates of the Palace. The fair was commenced upon the old plan of never giving change to purchasers, and enormous prices were paid for the merest trifles. One hundred dollars was paid for a cake of gingerbread, and the Turkish Ambassador gave one thousand and thalers (or German dollars) for a small bouquet of roses, and presented it, with a bow, to the Crown Princess. Many of the tables were covered with articles of great value.

She sold cheap toys, baby baskets, cradles, German dolls, penny trumpets and such like. Rich people went to other and more splendidly arrayed tables, but she dealt with the poor and humble. Her husband, the Crown Prince, presided over what the vulgar call in this country the "cent-a-grub bag," and who ever risked his money drew from the bag some such valuable article as a wooden spoon, an empty box, a spoon of cotton, or sugar toy. People of all classes of society, from the highest to the lowest, flocked to the Bazaar, the crowd increased from day to day, and on the last two days it was so enormous that the palace gates had to be closed.

There is nothing more characteristic than shakes of the hand. There is the high official—the body erect, and a rapid short shake, near the chin. There is the moribund—the flat hand introduced into your palm, and hardly conscious of its contiguity. The digital—a finger held out, much used by the high clergy. There is the shakish rusticus—when your hand is seized in an iron grasp, betokening rude health, warm heart, and distance from the metropolis, but producing a strong sense of relief on your part when you find your fingers unbroken. The next to this is the retentive shake—one which, beginning with vigour, pauses as it were to take breath, but without relinquishing its prey, and before you are aware, begins again, till you feel anxious for the result, and have no shake left in you.

OPENING OF A MEMORIAL CHURCH IN MADAGASCAR.—Towards the close of January last the first of the memorial churches in Madagascar was opened. On the very spot where the first Christian martyrs five-and-thirty years ago sealed their testimony to the truth of the religion they had embraced with their blood, a solid and elegant temple for the service of the one true God has now been raised, and the Sovereign of the island sent representative officers to the dedication services to tender her congratulations. The second church is making rapid progress.

DURING the administration of James Buchanan $5,000,000 were offered for Russian America, but the Czar wouldn't trade at that rate.

A SHOAL OF MERMAIDS.—On coming between the bluffs, I saw the beach already covered with natives, and we had not reached half the distance to shore, when we beheld a host of them in the water swimming towards us. Fearing some treachery, I looked to my pistols, but the interpreter told me they were only the Waianenes, coming to greet us, and I soon perceived that they were, indeed, all young girls. On they came, shouting, laughing and playing in the water like a shoal of mermaids, till we were in their midst, when it was with the greatest difficulty that we could advance. We were also in momentary danger of a capsize from the number that endeavored to clamber into the boat, most of whom we unceremoniously rejected. Their costume was the simplest that could be adopted. A few had a girdle of leaves around them, but most of them had not even this unpretending garment. At the suggestion of the interpreter, I allowed two of the chief personages present to come into the boat. The rest desisted from their efforts to board us, but clung about the boat, swam around it with one hand, whilst with the other extended towards us, they exclaimed, "Me backey, me backey!" These girls are all fond of manufactured tobacco, which, though the weed grows luxuriously on all the South Sea Islands, they do not themselves know how to prepare. We landed on the rocks near a little cascade that burst from an overhanging cliff, and fell into a wide basin of fresh water, clear as crystal. Some children were here filling water-shells; and the young women, I observed, as they emerged from the sea, threw themselves in this bath before resuming their tapu, the salt water being considered injurious to the skin.—Wild Life Among the Pacific Islanders.

EMBARRASSING.—A gentlemanly agent of a certain city was collecting fares from the passengers of a very full bus one morning. All paid promptly except one fat old lady, who sat next the door, and who seemed to be reaching down as if to get something she had dropped on the floor. When her time came to pay, she raised her head and thus addressed the blushing youth: "I tellers, when I travels, carry my money in my stockin' for yer sees nothing can git it thar, and I'd trouble you, young man, jist to retch it for me as I'm so jammed that I can't git to it." The youth looked at the other passengers, some of whom were laughing at his plight; one or two young ladies among them blushing scarlet, and beat a sudden retreat, muttering something about not charging old ladies, &c. His cash was short that morning the fare of one passenger.

A DUTCHMAN'S DESCRIPTION OF A RAINY NIGHT.—"Vell, last night vash de vorst as never vash. I tought to go down de hill to mine house; but no sooner did I vash den de vaster I stand still, for de darkness was so tick dat I cot not stir it mit mine boots, and de rain—dander and blixen! in more den tree minute mine skin vas vet troo to mine clo's. But after von leetle vile stopped quittin' to rain something so kep feelink of mineself all de vay long; and ven I comes to mine own house to vash in, vat you tink? It belong to somebody else!"

SAN FRANCISCO.—Up to the 1st July the "Great Register," as it is termed, exhibited 16,550 names. Of these, less than 7,109, or very nearly one-half, were naturalized citizens. Ireland takes the lead with 3,679, being the largest number of any one nationality on the Register.

Tom Moore said to Peel, on looking at the picture of an Irish orator: "You can see the quiver of his lips." "Yes," replied Peel, "and the 'Arrah' coming out of it."

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1867.

NO APPEAL.

The seventeenth clause of the "Gold Mining Ordinance, 1867," provides as follows:—"When in civil cases the subject matter in any mining dispute is in value more than two hundred and fifty dollars, an appeal shall, save as hereinafter excepted, lie from the decision, ruling, judgment, order or decree of the Gold Commissioner to the Supreme Court of Civil Justice of British Columbia; provided, however, that the decision of the Gold Commissioner, or of a jury summoned under the provisions of this Ordinance, upon all matters of fact shall be final and conclusive, and no appeal shall be therefrom." The history of the clause we have quoted is already known to most of our readers. The Aurora-Davis litigation of twelve or fifteen months ago gave rise to much bad blood in Cariboo. At that period an appeal lay from the Gold Commissioner's decision on matters of fact as well as on matters of law. The decision of the Commissioner, having been given in favor of the Davis Company, was appealed from; an injunction was issued out of the Supreme Court to restrain the Davis Company from working. The Writs of the Court were disregarded, torn up and sent down the flume. Agitation was rampant. Resolutionizing was rife. The door of the Supreme Court must be closed against appeal from the decisions of the Gold Commissioner, and the Judge of the Supreme Court must be sent about his business! A deputation was sent to the Capital with instructions to "live well" and stick to it until these two points were gained. The deputation came, put up at the Colonial, and luxuriated upon Grelley's best cheer—good enough for a Prince. The Supreme Judge was not exactly dismissed, but he had his wings clipped by the subsequent enactment of the clause we have quoted. We will not pretend to say how much all this was owing to the unpopularity of the Judge and the popularity of the Commissioner. We have, all of us, lived to see the conditions which contributed to the events just narrated undergo a complete change. The popular Commissioner—whom the Executive was asked, urged to create the sole arbiter in all mining disputes—was invited to take a seat at the "Green Table," and his place was supplied, temporarily at least, by a gentleman in whose judgment and general cumtux the miners did not repose that unbounded confidence which would have led them to desire finality in his decisions. In asking to have the Supreme Court closed against them, the miners evidently proceeded upon the assumption that Cox and Begbie were permanent institutions—official fixtures, beyond the reach of change. In this lay their error. Before asking the Governor to close the door of the Supreme Court against them they should have asked themselves how the question would be affected by a change in the personnel of the two Courts—how it would be with an unpopular and incompetent Commissioner, and a popular and competent Puisne Judge. We, ourselves, suggested this view of the question at the time; but the miners, being somewhat heated under the ill effects of undue litigation, vexatious appeals, injunctions, and Chancery delays, were in no mood to listen to the voice of reason. Although convinced that to give finality to the decisions of the Gold Commissioner, in civil suits, upon all matters of fact, would be beneficial to our mining interests provided the Commissioner were "the right man in the right place," yet we were apprehensive that it was just possible a condition of things might arise even in Cariboo which would render the bolting and barring of the door of the Supreme Court a very awkward fair. Such a condition of things has arisen—even now exists, and has not only caused a dark blotch upon the hitherto fair fame of British Columbia, as regards the maintenance of law and order, but has resulted in the Company which was legally entitled to the ground being "done" out of—the "Shiners" only knew how many hundreds of thousands, and the Colonial Exchequer made poorer by—we would not like to say how much; that is if this unhappy affair be indeed ended, as the meagre and provokingly indefinite telegram which will be found in another column would appear to imply. When, twelve months ago, we advocated a change in the laws by which a stop might be put to the wide-spread and interminable litigation by which many of our miners were being driven out of the country and some of the best ground, in Cariboo hermetically, or rather judicially, sealed up for a whole season, we did so chiefly on the ground that the miners should be the best judges of what would conduce to the benefit of that interest they represent—that they should be largely left to manage their own affairs, and because they appeared to be pretty unanimous in demanding a remedy. If time and circumstances have so changed popular opinion in Cariboo as to demand a return to the old system the onus of reconciling the apparent inconsistency rests with the miners, not with us. In any case, we see in all this a wholesome warning against hasty legislation in response to popular clamour, which it will be the wisdom of our law-makers to turn to good account in the future.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

The Municipal Council met at 8 o'clock, on Monday evening, the President (J. S. Clute Esq.) in the Chair. Present:—Councillors Ferris, Withrow, Cunningham, Ashwell and Robson.

After the reading of minutes and disposing of several small bills the Finance Committee presented their report for the year, showing a cash balance of $511.36.

The Clerk/Collector then presented the following report:—

To the President and Members of the Municipal Council of the City of New Westminster.

GENTLEMEN.—In accepting office from you at the beginning of the present Municipal year, I found according to the Financial Report that there was a "balance to be expended" of $580 83, 22¢ of which belonged to the Government grant for Front street.

This amount was not in the Treasury, it had to be collected.

I have used my best efforts to collect the amount, and have succeeded in a measure. I have collected the sum of $568 124 of old taxes. The balance I have failed to collect, as the property on which the assessment was made has passed to the Mortgagees through Assignees, leaving no recourse.

It is to be regretted that the Financial Report did not show the indebtedness of the Council, which, at that time amounted to $518 30. Add to that amount $232 83 which belonged to the Government grant for Front street, and the indebtedness would be $751 13, for which you have received the sum of $368 124, leaving the previous Council indebted beyond its assets to the sum of $383 00. This amount you have paid.

It gives me pleasure to say that you now retire from office leaving a cash balance of $511 36 to your successors; a sum sufficient to make good the unappropriated balance of the Government grant on Front street, (which the previous Council used for other purposes) and a sum of upwards of $250, for the legitimate purposes of the Municipality.

Gentlemen, I thank you for the forbearance you have shown to my many imperfections, and for the assistance you all have given me in the discharge of my official duties, duties which have been extremely painful in some instances; more, however, on account of the financial difficulties which many of the Ratepayers have felt during the present year, than from any disposition to disregard the laws of the Municipality.

Hoping, Gentlemen, that a brighter day will shortly shine upon the Municipality I have &c. &c. &c.

W. CLARKSON,
Collector, M. C.

Both reports were received, the Financial one adopted, and that of the Collector ordered to be entered in the minutes of the Council, after which the Council adjourned.

NANAIMO.—The Police Court was on Tuesday the 30th ult., the theatre of proceedings which indicate anything but a high state of morality in certain circles. The address of the man Williams is alike discreditable to himself and to the Court, and should never have been permitted to be delivered. We presume the fine ($25) was none too much, but why the $10 compensation to Bolton for loss of time, and how the $9 costs of Court, we are at a loss to comprehend. "The weather," says the Tribune of the 3rd inst., "which we are at present favored with is a decided improvement on any that has preceded it this season. During the week, in the day time, the average temperature was 80 degrees, Fahrenheit; the maximum degree of warmth was attained on Wednesday, when the thermometer indicated 87 degrees.

VANCOUVER ITEMS IN BRIEF FROM THE "NEWS."—The Naval Dramatic Club gave an entertainment at the Victoria Theatre on Thursday night. Notwithstanding that there was a ball on board H. M. S. Malacca the same night, the attendance at the Theatre was so large as to render it impossible for all to gain admission. The acting and singing &c. are described as being of a very high order for amateurs. The entertainment concluded with the farce entitled "Aren Belle," in which Mrs. Marsh and Miss Arnot took part. The entertainment was under the patronage of the Admiral, and under the able management of Mr. Marsh. The News is advocating the establishment of a new cemetery for the city, a much more sensible theme than annexation, we should say. The News appears to have some doubt respecting the Dry Dock movement, recently announced by its local contemporary with such a flourish of trumpets. The News thinks Confederation is cooling. Where?—The News regrets to learn that a foreign trader has "skiddled," leaving one of his countrymen the worse by $3,000.

FROM BURRARD INLET.—Mr. Lewis left Burrard Inlet at 5 o'clock last evening. The Alexandria had not made her appearance when he left, but was expected about six o'clock, although we fancy she could not well get there before seven o'clock, not having left Victoria till noon. It was reported at the Inlet that she was towing in a ship for Messrs. Moody & Co.

POLICE COURT.—There were several cases before this Court yesterday, none of them, however, of importance to the public.

The case of Capt. McLean against an Indian for destroying his cattle, fell through for want of evidence. In discharging the Indian the Judge warned him not to be found upon Mr. McLean's property in future.

FROM VICTORIA.—The steamer Fly, Captain Fain, arrived from Victoria on Sunday evening. She had 33,000 bricks for Messrs. Cunningham Bros.' new building, and some hay and other articles for Messrs. Moody & Co., Burrard Inlet, for which place she sailed yesterday morning.

COOL.—Our Sunday contemporary of the News asks:—"Was the BRITISH COLUMBIAN serious when it proposed the sale of Vancouver Island?" We answer our contemporary, as Irishmen are said to do, by asking another question:—"Is not the BRITISH COLUMBIAN always serious?"

KILL AND EAT.—The wholesome restraint imposed upon the Sportsman by "The Game Ordinance 1867" was removed, as regards Deer and Elk on the 1st inst., and as regards Grouse, Prairie Fowl or Partridge, on Saturday last; so that the feathered tribe especially may look out for squalls.

LOOKING WELL.—Mr. Chadsey, of Sumass, informs us that crops of every kind are looking remarkably well in that district.

LATER FROM CARIBOO.

We have files of the Cariboo Sentinel of the 25th and 29th July, from which we compile the following summary of news:

MINING INTELLIGENCE.

Black Bear Creek.—A number of those who went over with the first rush to this new creek had returned. Amongst the returned adventurers is Mr. James Orr, who gives a very intelligent account of the new diggings, and from which it would appear they were greatly overestimated in the first reports. Very little gold had been taken out, but still it was expected that some good ground would be struck. Hilton & Co's shaft, from which much had been expected, struck the bed-rock without striking gold.

Canyon Creek.—The news received from this quarter within the last few days, has been of the most exciting character. Mr. Pollock, who left the creek on 21st inst., had arrived at Quesnelmouth, and reported that the Washburn co. had struck a well defined ledge of quartz, five feet in thickness, immensely rich in gold and silver. The rock is so easily worked, that even with the present appliances enough can be taken out daily to keep a ten stamp mill going. The arastras had been started on the 20th, and are said to be working admirably. Mr. Pollock was the bearer of a report from Mr. Christie, the foreman of the company, accompanied with several rich specimens from the ledge, but unfortunately, while running the canyon his canoe upset, and everything was lost. It was with great difficulty he succeeded in saving himself. If these reports are not exaggerated, and we have no reason to suspect that they are much overdrawn, there is certainly a new era about to dawn on us, that will dispel the lowering clouds of dark adversity that have so long hung around us, and give a fresh impetus to every branch of mining enterprise. Let us only get one good quartz mill going, and the country is safe.

Williams Creek.—The work on the bed-rock drain had not been progressing as rapidly as it otherwise would have done, owing to legal proceedings, but it was expected that 50 men would be at work on it during the following week. The claims above continued to yield much as usual. The following may suffice as examples:—Deadwood, $10 to $12 a day to the hand; Wilson, 52oz. for three days' work; McLaren, 80oz. for 15 hours' work; Brouse, from $16 to $20 a day to the hand; Davis, 120oz. for week; Aurora, 95oz.; California, about 70oz.; Forest Rose, 70oz.; Prairie Flour, 68 ounces.

Mink Gulch.—Perseverance, washed up for the week 30oz.

Stouts Gulch.—Alturas, for the week 305oz.

Conklin's Gulch.—United, for week 85oz.; Reid, for week 24oz.

Musquito Gulch.—This is a small stream emptying into Willow River, about seven miles from Williams Creek. It is attracting a good deal of attention although there has not been much gold taken out yet. The distance to the pay is generally 22 to 35 feet. Willow co. had bottomed their shaft at 32 feet, taking over 4oz. from two shifts; Discovery taking out good pay; Holman bottomed their shaft at 32 feet, finding good prospects; Jeffrie, 20 feet deep, making 18oz. a week to one pick.

Grouse Creek.—Heron co. cleaning up the bed rock previously worked, and making as high as 2oz. a day to the hand. Canadian co. still working disputed ground. The Flume co's ground, together with the flume, has been pre-empted and taken possession of by a company called the "Sparrowhawk co.," in consequence of the former company having neglected to represent the claim for more than three days. Caroline co. are busy ground sluicing and will take out big pay; they cleaned up $2,200 out of a piece of ground about 12 feet square, at last washing. Reid co. took out, week before last, for four men's labor, $215. Big Gun co. making an ounce a day to the hand. A prospect of $2,750 to the pan is reported on this creek as having been obtained on the 28th July.

from a shaft that was being sunk in the bed of the creek, opposite the Discovery claim.

Lowee Creek.—The Vaughan Sweep co. cleaned up 53oz. for two days' washing.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The Sentinel of the 29th July understands that arrangements were entered into on the 27th between George Wilson and Joe Edeh, for a match to contest the championship of British Columbia, for $1,000 a side, with power to increase the sum to $2,000. Articles were drawn up, and a deposit of $300 a side made. The day fixed for the combat is the 24th September next. Further deposits of $100 will be made every Saturday night until the whole sum has been put up. The Caledonian Society was to meet on the 3rd August for the election of officers. Mr. F. W. Laumeister, always ready when a work of charity has to be performed, had collected $300 for the widow and children of the late George Robertson. Mr. Barnard is having a cellar excavated out of the solid rock, in the rear of his Express office in this town, in which he intends to preserve fruits for winter use. We understand he has purchased all the apples and pears now growing in Mr. McKibbert's orchard, on the lower Fraser, and will forward them here as soon as they ripen.

ARRIVAL OF RIVER STEAMERS.

$225,000 IN TREASURE.

The steamer Lilloet, Capt. Fleming, arrived from Yale on Monday about noon. She brought a few passengers, and a number of Indians with about three tons of dried salmon, obtained in exchange for berries; also 80 half-barrels of salmon, put up by Waller, near Langley, and destined for the Sandwich Island market.

The steamer Onward, Capt. Irving, arrived from Yale a few days later with a number of passengers. The cargo of furs from the H. B. Co. station at Fort Shepherd, and a number of Express and mail. Amongst the passengers were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chasley, of Sumner; Mr. R. T. Mack, of Chilliwack; and Mr. Well, manager of the Bank of British Columbia, and Mr. Gillan, of the Bank of British North America, with, as nearly as we have been enabled to ascertain, $225,000 in treasure.

THE GROUSE CREEK DIFFICULTY.

The miserably vague and indefinite telegram which will be found in another column is all the information we have been enabled to obtain direct from the scene of trouble. We hear, however, through other sources that eight, ten, or twelve, we are not sure which, of the most prominent of the refractory miners were arrested, lodged in jail, and subsequently let out on bail; that the Governor left for the capital, and that he had reached Quesnelmouth, the Canadian company had reentered upon the disputed ground, and assumed their former attitude of acting in defiance of law. Without pretending to say to what extent this is true, we believe there is no doubt that the Governor is on his way down—that he took the steamer at Quesnelmouth on Sunday morning, reaching the 170 mile post on Sunday evening, and that he may be expected to reach here on Friday. As to what the result of his Excellency's visit to Cariboo may be we are not in a position even to guess, and must be content to await further developments.

MUNICIPAL TAX SALE.—The sale of town lots, for Municipal taxes, took place at the Court House on Saturday. Very few lots were put up, as nearly all the parties settled before the day of sale. The attendance was large, and bidding was spirited upon the lots that were sold.

No STEAMER.—The Alexandra takes the place of the Enterprise, until the latter receives her new boilers and undergoes repairs. The Alexandra left Victoria for Burrard Inlet yesterday morning and will probably be round here sometime before noon this day.

NEW DIGGINGS.

Mr. Smith, of Rock Creek, who has just arrived at Hope, brings intelligence of new diggings being discovered on a small stream twenty miles beyond Rock Creek. Two men, who have been prospecting in that locality during the past year, struck a bank of pay-dirt, ranging from sixteen to twenty feet in depth, and of great extent. They immediately acquainted eight of their friends with the important discovery, and the Company of ten had set to work and completed the most thorough preparations for utilizing this enormous bank of pay-dirt. Careful prospecting has convinced them that, with the facilities they possess for working, the ground will give an average yield of $20 a day to each man employed upon it, which will, of course, make an aggregate yield of $200 a day, to the company of ten. This is a discovery of some importance, and may, it is reasonable to hope, lead to further prospecting, and the discovery of more ground equally good; for it is difficult to believe that all the treasure of that region is confined to this particular bank. We may state that the intelligence comes to us through a channel which leaves us no room to doubt its authenticity.

BULLY FOR BILLY.—The following is related of "Billy the Bludge":—On the morning of the memorable 16th July, a certain very worthy officer, had the "Redoubtable Thirty" drawn up in front of the Fashion Hotel, Barkerville, for inspection, preparatory to marching for Grouse Creek. The officer in charge of the Brigade is, it is necessary to state, afflicted with an impediment in his speech. "Billy the Bludge," stepping in front, addressed the "Thirty" as follows:—"Gentlemen, I have a word of advice to give you. Should your worthy officer there find it necessary to give the order to 'retreat,' do you turn tail and run as soon as you hear the word. For, if you wait till he gets the word 'out,' depend upon it you'll be shot!"

ON CIRCUIT.—The Hon. C. Brew, will have to-day for Yale where he will hold Court and proceed thence to Lilloet for the purpose of considering an application to be allowed to divert a portion of a small stream running through the town for mining operations, on a flat immediately below the town, which it is believed will pay well.

The MAIL STEAMER ACTIVE, having sailed from San Francisco on Saturday, will be due at Victoria to-morrow. We shall doubtless have our mails on Friday.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Soundness renewed.—Any indolent ulcer or chronic sore should immediately have this excellent ointment applied to it in the manner pointed out in its accompanying directions. For thoroughly cleansing a diseased or broken skin, and for rousing its poisoned vessels or depressed nerves to healthy action, nothing can surpass Holloway's well-known Ointment. It strikingly shows its power when applied to the "old man's ulcer," which settles in the leg and often becomes most intractable under ordinary treatment, though no case has yet withstood this cooling and healing salve. The troublesome swellings preparatory to most ulcerations of the legs are likewise reduced by the diligent application of Holloway's ointment, by giving strength to the weakened circulation through the capillaries.

"THE LIFE OF THE FLESH IS IN THE BLOOD," was said by inspiration long before Harvey's discovery of the circulation had brought to light its purposes and uses. Now we know not only that "life is in the blood," but that disease inhabits it also. Many of the disorders that pervade the human frame have their home in it, thrive and grow in it. The celebrated Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, has said, in regard to this important fact, "marking a remedy to cure these disorders." His Extract of Sassaaparilla purges out the impurities of the blood and induces a healthy action in it that expels disease. This looks reasonable, and it is true, for we know by our own experience. Seldom as we take any medicine, we have nevertheless several times been under obligations to the skill of Dr. Ayer for the relief which his remedies never fail to afford us when we are obliged to have recourse to them.—Catholic, Halifax, N. S.
